BEHAVIORAL MANAGEMENT POLICY*

Parents will be informed if their child displays poor behavior. General discipline techniques involve positive reinforcement for good behavior and careful explanation of behavior that is unacceptable. An activity will be denied for repeated poor behavior and the child will be directed to an alternative activity.

The following behaviors will require intervention:

- A. Repeatedly engaging in fighting as a way to solve an issue.
- B. Stealing or defacing the site or other children's property.
- C. Refusing to follow basic safety rules.
- D. Repeated disrespect or rude and discourteous behavior toward other children or staff
- E. Repeatedly display an inability to follow established guidelines.

The YMCA reserves the right to withdraw any child who continuously does not follow these rules.
